SABRE

"Mars Metal responded quickly to our needs in developing our successful Sabre 452 prototype wing. We are grateful for their help and support, and we anticipate continued success with present and future requirements. Thank you Kevin, Paul and Marian!"

GREG TONDREAU

"Mars Metal provides us with consistent high quality lead casting for keels on our 42 footers and our 70 footers. They provide us with accurate, fair, finished parts that match the design weight and dimensions no matter how complex the shape may be."

PETER G. SMITH

THE HINCKLEY COMPANY

"Mars Metal produces our keels from pattern to finished product, promptly delivering us well finished keels to our specifications, ready for installation."

BEN DU BLISSON
BENETEAU

"Mars is painless to work with providing keels for our NE 400, that are well finished, accurate in weights and dimensions, and their good customer service always meets our scheduling."

Pacific Seacraft

"Pacific Seacraft chooses Mars Metal for our keels because of Mars' attention to detail, quality, and on time delivery."

NEIL RUSSELL

"Our Dehler 41 DS keels (Cruising World's Boat of the Year) produced by Mars, match our hulls precisely, and Mars meets our scheduling needs delivering finished keels all over North America."

DOUG WIELHOUWER

"We researched keel manufacturers in conjunction with the owners representative. We found Mars to be the company with the expertise and track record to complete a project of this size. Mars had the ability to build the pattern and do the pour, and do a damn fine job of it."

(As quoted in The Even Keel, Vol 2, referring to 106,000 lbs. centre board keel.)

TIM HODGDON

DERECKTOR • GOETZ
YACHTS

"Mars produced the keel for the Tripp 88', on time, on target weight, with a good finish at a very competitive price. We've ordered the keel for our Alden 63' from Mars."
